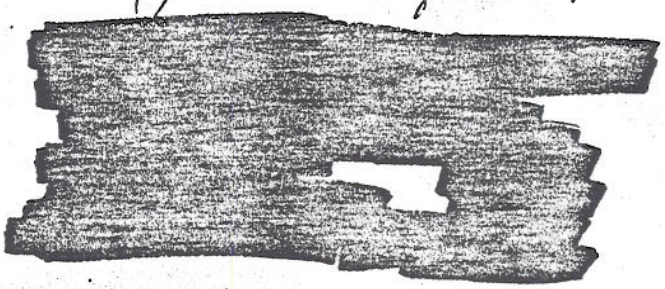
Dear Sir,

Will make this as brief as possible, could it be possible the name of the alleged Killer of Dr. King, be ficticious? Those three names Eric, Starvo + Galt, are the names of the "baddies" in 2 of Ian Flemings books on James Bond. You neednt waste time in answering this, as I know you are busy. But all three of those names tacked on one person, who was born before those books were written seems to pat. Please dont let my name get out.

Good luck in your work.


Yours truly
